WOMAN MYING OF BURNS KEPT CAUSE SECRET

Boston Relatives Direct That Mrs. Teal's Body Be Buried in Baltimore.

Boston relatives have directed that the body of Mrs. Jennie M. Teal, a widow, thirty-eight years of age, who has just died in the Roosevelt Hospital in New York of burns apparently received on October 23, be taken today to Baltimore for burial.

Mrs. Teal was one of the most mysterious patients ever received in the New York hospital. Rumors were heard from an unimpeachable source on the evening of October 23, that Mrs. Teal had been found dead in a rooming house, and that she had been suffering from a severe case of erysipelas. The first view of the body was taken by a police doctor, who was informed that the body had been found in a rooming house, and that the cause of death was erysipelas.

The day following a mysterious note was sent by a paper clipping telling that the body of Mrs. Teal had been found in a rooming house, and that the cause of death was erysipelas. The police doctor, who was informed that the body had been found in a rooming house, and that the cause of death was erysipelas, was informed that the body had been found in a rooming house, and that the cause of death was erysipelas.

She was discovered when discovered by Mr. Martin and the police.

Miss Warren, who was about thirty years of age, was a native of England, and had been in the United States for several years. She was a widow, and had been married to a man who had been in the United States for several years.

She was found in a room in the rear of the store, and the cause of death was carbolic acid. NORTH ADAMS, Nov. 7.—Aeronaut Lee Stevens, who made Tuesday a highly successful balloon ascension from Pittsburgh, reached North Adams this morning, and is preparing for an ascension there tomorrow. The stormy day prevented the trip and Mr. Stevens, who had an important engagement in New York for this morning, left the city yesterday morning. He will leave for North Adams this evening to aid G. Coleman Brown of Dallas, Texas, who is making an experiment in Mr. Stevens's ascent. Stevens is perfecting an invention of Mr. Brown's for a really dirigible balloon, which will return to the city of its launching. Stevens returns. Mr. Stevens expects to make at least one ascension from North Adams tomorrow, accompanied by one or more men who are especially anxious to see him.

NAMESAKE OF MAYOR OUT TO BEAT JOHN F.

Treasurer Fitzgerald of Roofers' Union Tells How He Hopes to Get Elected.

PROMISES A SQUARE DEAL

Declaring that the results of the State election showed conclusively that Boston voters are determined to oust the Fitzgerald machine, John F. Fitzgerald of No. 178 East Fifth street, treasurer of the Roofers' Union, says he is confident that he could defeat his namesake as a working man's candidate for the mayoralty.

Mr. Fitzgerald, who was nominated in May as the choice of the wage earners, declares he will enter the race to win, and will take on nomination papers as a citizen, and will not be a candidate for the position. In the following statement made today to the BOSTON AMERICAN he tells his reasons for running against the Mayor:

By John F. Fitzgerald.

I am not to down Fitzgerald and to be Boston a good administration as the candidate of the Citizens' Labor party. My intention was to get a chance in the city government, which we all know as long as we are, and it is about the best thing that could be done.

LEAGUE TAKES REPUBLICAN STRONGHOLD

G. O. P. Leaders Routed in Maynard After Holding Power 20 Years.

LYNCH NAMED FOR HOUSE

After holding supreme power for more than twenty years, the Republican party has been routed in Maynard for the election of Cornelius J. Lynch, the Independent League and Democratic candidate to the House of Representatives from the Tenth legislative district, and today the stunned and addled G. O. P. leaders are trying to gather the remnants of their once powerful organization together.

Mr. Lynch, who is only thirty-nine years of age, has already become a prominent name in politics. Last year he was defeated after a hard fight by Fred P. Trull, Republican, who again retained the seat, and with the support of the Independent League was elected a member.

Praise League for Support.

He was educated in the public schools of Maynard and was graduated from the high school of that town in 1890 with excellent honors. He is a member of the Order of Eagles and a prominent member of the Independent League.

Mr. Lynch is strongly in favor of the Public Opinion Bill and has recently in his campaign endorsed the Legislative Committee on Labor. He is a member of the Independent League in all his feeling-labor conditions.

PASTOR IS CHALLENGED.

Worcester, Nov. 7.—The Rev. Elton White has challenged a brother minister, the Rev. Dr. William Scott, to meet him in a public debate on a certain statement which the latter is said to have made. Dr. Scott is said to have stated that "the Independent League is a good thing, also that 'Socialism' and 'Socialism' count for nothing."
